Company Picnics

Company Picnics are a great way to socialize with coworkers and their families in a relaxed setting. We coordinate activities that will engage even the most diverse group – from relays to BINGO to a giant air slide, your guests will want this event to become an annual tradition! From beginning to end, Corporate Leisure Services can coordinate all of the details including:

- Facility Rental
- Games and Prizes (Inflatable Rides, Relays, Field Activities, Carnival Games, BINGO)
- Entertainment (DJ, Clown, Magician)
- Catering
- Concessions (Cotton Candy, Snow Cones, Popcorn, Funnel Cakes)
- Equipment Rentals (Table, Tents, Chairs, Portable Restrooms)
- Décor (Linens, Centerpieces, Thematic Décor)
- Staff and Permits (Coordination and management of staff and all required permits)

Company picnics offer an opportunity to:

- Increase employee morale
- Develop an anticipated company tradition
- Increase feelings of belonging among coworkers
- Meet coworkers and family members in a casual environment

PRICING STRUCTURE

Pricing is determined based upon the size and components of the event. To receive a customized quote, please complete an Event Quote Request Form.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Group Size: Any

Time Frame: A standard event time is 4 hours

Locations: Pullen Park, Lake Wheeler, Anderson Point, Durant Nature Park, Spring Forest Road Park

Teambuilding Programs

Facilitators will lead participants through a customized series of group dynamic challenges and activities built around themes and scenarios. Particular focus will be placed on the debriefing session following each activity – this is where facilitators will discuss group process and help translate learning to the workplace. This intensive program is particularly effective for groups undergoing change or experiencing reduced morale or productivity.

This program is intended to address specific goals and objectives. Clients will participate in a free consultation with facilitators prior to the event where they will determine goals and objectives (Examples; Trust, Internal Communication, Productivity, and Leadership Development).

Participants will have the opportunity to:

- Experience effective collaboration
- Feel a sense of belonging and value
- Strengthen relationships among team members
- Increase self-awareness
- Identify strengths of other team members
- View work projects and processes objectively

PRICING STRUCTURE

Pricing is determined based upon the number of participants, facility rental, duration of program, and catering as well as a flat rate planning fee.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Group Size: 7-20 per session

Time Frame: Half-day and full-day options are available, but a full-day is recommended to allow time for the group to progress through the natural stages of teambuilding.

Location: Working in an off-site location allows groups to participate with less interruption and removes barriers of the work setting. Lake Johnson, Durant Nature Park, Lake Wheeler, and Anderson Point work well.

*High-Ropes Course options are also available.

Corporate Challenge

A corporate challenge allows employees to participate in activities that encourage social interaction and friendly competition. Organizations often develop teams based upon individual divisions, departments, regions, or management groups. Events can be customized and adapted to meet team abilities and challenges. Popular activities include:

- Scavenger Hunt
- Geocaching Scavenger Hunt
- Field Games and Relays
- Inflatable Challenges and Obstacle Courses
- Sports Challenge: Sand Volleyball, Kickball, Wiffle Ball
- Karaoke Challenge
- Brain Teasers

Participants will have the opportunity to experience:

- Experience increased employee morale
- Strengthen interaction among team members

PRICING STRUCTURE

Pricing is determined based upon the facility rental, selected activities and catering.
